

CHAPTER 3

GUIDELINES FOR GCET-2011

3.1 GENERAL RULES

1. The applicants should read the Brochure carefully before doing registration online.
2. Information about various Institutions/Colleges/University departments has been compiled based on the information provided by the respective Institutions/Colleges/University departments. For further information and clarifications, the candidate is advised to contact the respective Institutions/Colleges/University departments.
3. It may clearly be noted that the Admission Committee allots seats to the candidates who have qualified in the GCET 2011 based on their merit position, but the final admission will be confirmed only by the respective University and other Universities (for their departments only) by issuing the eligibility certificate to the candidate. The Admission Committee will not be responsible if any university does not issue the eligibility certificate to a particular candidate for any reason whatsoever.
4. The medium of instruction for MBA in all the Universities / Institutes of the State is English.
5. Any change or modification of the rules/guidelines/instructions given in this bulletin and Government Resolution and / or Government Act relating to GCET-2011 shall be binding on all concerned.
6. The final eligibility will be checked / decided at the time of allotment of seats by Admission Committee and at the time of giving admission by the respective Institute/University. Registration of the candidate or appearance in the Entrance Test does not confirm eligibility of the candidate.
7. The candidate will also have to deposit the original documents with the GCET Committee, if the allotted seat is accepted. The candidates, therefore, should keep sufficient number of attested copies of these documents for their use for other purposes, as the original documents deposited will be returned only after about six months through the institute where the admission has been and the same cannot be returned to any candidate in the interim period for any other purpose.
8. In case of any dispute arising out of the interpretation of any provision of the Government notification governing the GCET 2011, the final decision in all such cases shall be of the Education Department, Government of Gujarat.
9. As the allotment of students to different institutes will be made strictly on the basis of merit, seats available and the choice of the candidate, there will be no mutual exchange of students/transfer of students between different institutes after the final reshuffling-round and during the entire course of study, as such an exercise will result in distortion of merit and nullify the entire purpose of centralized admission.
10. In case, due to unavoidable/unforeseen circumstances, if it becomes necessary to make any change in the above schedule, the same will be notified on the GCET-2011 link of the website <http://www.gtu.ac.in> and on the notice boards of help centers. The candidates, therefore, are requested to see the website/notice boards of the help centers periodically.
11. Any dispute arising out the GCET-2011 admission process shall be within the jurisdiction of the courts in Ahmedabad.
