ABOUT THE COMPANY:

FountainHead Project Management Pvt. Ltd. is a professionally managed Project Management Company offering the complete spectrum of services for construction industry. As a Project Management & Construction Administration Agency, their role is similar to an Air Traffic Control (ATC) at any airport. They manage vast data of information and synchronize the sequence of actions according to best-fit timings in order to prevent any loss of resources while meeting project's business goals and quality objectives. Their capability in managing all types of building construction projects allows us to be valuable partner at any stage of a construction project – be it preconstruction, construction or post construction. As a promising modern PMC, they are equally well-versed with core functions and peripheral processes both. For more information, visit <http://www.fhts.in>
